

The Newcomers Club of Kennebunk, Kennebunkport and Arundel

NEWSLETTER

April, 2012

Greetings Newcomers -

Unfortunately one of the few snow storms of this winter forced us to cancel our March Pot Luck dinner. Thanks to everyone that worked organizing and all the members who prepared food only to have the dinner cancelled.

This April, we have another month full of activities. Our monthly meeting will be held on the 2nd Thursday, April 12th this year. We have a special speaker substitution for our meeting, Emmy award-winner and documentary filmmaker Richard Kahn, who will speak about his travels in the Alaska wilderness.

Also, in April, the Portsmouth on the 14th. Please Theater Group will be attending a play in 1st and there will be a DineAround on the 14th. Please see the details in this newsletter for these events. Thank you for your support in making these events successful.

Finally, we have already begun planning for the 2012 – 2013 season! The nominating committee will be presenting the list of nominees at the April meeting.

We still have positions open and are looking for VOLUNTEERS. Please contact me as soon as possible if you are interested in the Program Committee or Hospitality Committee. We are also looking for a Webmaster, Men's Lunch chairman and will be accepting nominations for any of the other positions, too.

NEXT MEETING

April Meeting - April 12th - 7:00PM
Downstairs-Community House, Kennebunkport

Emmy Award Winner Richard Kahn Presents 'An Arctic Wilderness Journey'- Richard lives in Wilton, NH

Emmy award-winner and documentary filmmaker Richard Kahn offers "Travels by Canoe in Alaska's Western Arctic," a wilderness journey of words and photographs at The Community House in Kennebunkport.

An independent filmmaker, Kahn has had his work presented on WGBH-TV, Discovery Channel, CBS, and WBZ-TV in Boston, as well as Vermont Public Television.

Kahn has spent the last twelve summers paddling wilderness rivers in the Brooks Mountain Range and North Slope of Northwestern Alaska. He has traveled extensively in the National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska, spending more than 300 days on the Colville River and its tributaries. His talk focuses on his time spent on these rivers, in an area with which few people are familiar. A question-and-answer period follows his presentation.

The inappropriately named National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska (NPR-A) is 23.5 million acres of wilderness. It is home to the Western and Central Caribou herds, wolves, bears, wolverines and a rich assortment of raptors, songbirds and waterfowl. You might even be able to see some of these birds in your backyard right now during the fall migration. In 2012, the Bureau of Land Management will review the land management plans for the Reserve and Americans have an opportunity to take part in this important process.

Kahn's photographs and journals record intense light, an ocean of unnamed mountains, crystal clear rivers, delicate wild flowers, and glimpses of the animals whose lives are woven into the fabric of the place.

Kahn's credits also include NOVA, Frontline, and Bill Moyers Journal. The filmmaker received an Emmy in 1983 for "7 North," a documentary on nurses in a neurological unit and in 1973 for "A New Beginning," about four teenage patients in a spinal cord injury unit.

In 2009, Richard shot beautiful footage for Alaska Wilderness League's short film "The Reserve".

Habitat for Humanity—

"Our rehab project in Springvale is about complete. We now need to look toward our next venture - a build in Biddeford. Although we own the property, we still must find a family for the house and funding to start construction.

Our greatest need, at present, is for "behind the scenes" people. Habitat cannot build houses without a cadre of volunteers contributing various skills. We rely on people who are able to organize, run a meeting, create financial reports, work with volunteers, interview families, help with fund raising, write grants, etc.

If you feel you would like to contribute in any way, please contact me at ron@habitatyorkcounty.org for additional information."

Theater Group: The theatre group invites everyone to join them in their theatre outing on Sunday, April 1st at 2 pm at the Seacoast Repertory Theatre in Portsmouth, NH to see Ain't Misbehavin'. The outrageously prodigious comic and musical soul of the 1930s Harlem lives on in this rollicking, swinging, finger-snapping revue that is still considered one of Broadway's best. The inimitable Thomas "Fats" Waller rose to international fame during the Golden Age of the Cotton Club, honky tonk dives along Lenox Avenue, rent parties, stride piano players and the jumpin' new beat, Swing. Although not quite a biography, Ain't Bisbehavin' evokes the delightful humor and infectious energy of this American original as a versatile cast strut, strums and sings the songs he made famous in a career that ranged from uptown clubs to downtown Tin Pan Alley to Hollywood and concert stages in U.S., Canada and Europe.

All members are invited to purchase their own tickets separately. Ticket Prices $20 to $42 Available after January 1st at the Seacoast Repertory Theatre, 125 Bow Street, Portsmouth, NH. For those who are interested in dinner after the play we have reservations at: The Portsmouth Brewery at 56 Market St. (about a 4 minute walk from the Playhouse) Portsmouth 603-431-1115 www.portsmouthbrewery.com (menu can be reviewed on line)

They have a varied menu from soups, salads, appetizers, sandwiches to steaks, fish and yummy sounding desserts. We need to get a count to them ASAP. Please email Pam Turk at grm-pam@gmail.com if you are planning on going to dinner..
