NEWCOMERS AND NEIGHBORS CLUB
NEWSLETTER

September 2019

Newcomers and Neighbors
Note from the Co-Presidents

We are excited to begin our year as Newcomers and Neighbors Co-Presidents, and we're looking forward to carrying on the traditions of friendship, neighborliness and socialization.

Creating a welcoming and friendly club for all members, especially new members, will be a primary focus for us for the 2019-2020 season. We have already met to discuss how we might implement some new ideas, including having a 'new member greeter' at each meeting to welcome newcomers at the door. We'll also be asking for volunteers to buddy with new members for various social events. Another new idea is to offer transportation to any member who doesn't wish to drive to our meetings or events. You'll hear more about these ideas at our first meeting in September.

Your program committee and social committee members have been hard at work this summer finalizing a whole host of interesting speakers and planning the many social events that we have come to enjoy throughout the year. The many other N&N clubs and activities are all ready to go as well.

We hope to see you all back, renewed and refreshed after a great summer, for our first meeting on September 5, 2019 !

Regards,

Pat Georges and Esther Rohrs

Monthly Meeting: September 5, 2019
Community House
6:30 pm Social; 7:00 pm Program

Come to the September meeting prepared to laugh! We are going to be joined by members of the Maine Repertory Theater. This is a new Improv Comedy troupe which has been performing at Pepperell Mills in Biddeford since last winter. Steve Burnette, one of the co-founders of the group, will tell us a little bit about improv comedy and about the troupe. And he will be joined by several other members of the troupe to perform a few of their skits. And you may even find yourself up on the stage!

Maine Rep has a tradition of encouraging its patrons to bring a donation of a non-perishable food item which are then given to the Biddeford Food Pantry and the Saco Food Pantry. Feel free to follow this tradition if you'd like to - we'll have a collection basket for food items at the meeting.

Community House, 2 North Street, Kennebunkport

Save the date! Saturday, October 26, 3 to 6 PM

Welcome Back!!! Fall social event, to be held in conjunction with Brick Store Museum's annual All Souls' Walk.

Meet and mingle with old friends and new and get into that Halloween spirit! We will meet at the Brick Store Museum, then stroll across the street for a tour of Hope Cemetery, where we will encounter many of Kennebunk's most important historical figures. Hear their stories directly from their earthly portrayals and learn more about the rich history of this community. We will meet back at the Museum for wine and cheese.

The leisurely walk lasts a little over an hour, and those who are unable or unwilling to walk (or are afraid of ghosts) are welcome to join us for drinks and socializing.
