January 2024

Co-Presidents' Message: Just a quick note from Joyce and I to open the New Year. We want to thank all that made our holiday gathering such a success. All accounts say a good time was had by all and we appreciate the good, hard work of the social committee members and all others that lent a hand to organize, prepare and tidy up afterward. Please do join the Zoom meeting for good programs these next two months, and remember to reach out to each other, make some plans and enjoy some brightening through the winter.
